

KIND

&

HELFREICH

A person in my community mentors me. This person helps with community problems and tries to make our community a better place. He thinks about what is best for the community and what community members want. He is someone I look up to for being kind and helpful. Canaan wouldn't be the same without him.

—Canaan Memorial High School