

DO THE RIGHT THING

There is someone in my community who is a selectman and the pastor for a local church who is a great person and tries to do the right thing for everyone. He has two of the most challenging jobs in America, working as a pastor and in government, but he is loved by many people. He also works as a counselor to help students in our school. He is a great person and someone who really helps students.

-Canaan Memorial High School