

EMPHASIZE INCLUSION

Our school got a bunch of new teachers this year and a couple of them decided to create a gay-straight alliance club because they thought our school needed one. I think that emphasized inclusion. There weren't many people at the first meeting, but at each meeting after that, more and more people have showed up.

—Littleton High School